DR. GEORGE F. HEATH

Founder of The Numismatist and the A. N. A.
(1850-1908)

Dr. George Francis Heath was born in Warsaw, N. Y., on September 21, 1850. As a youth he acquired a practical knowledge of pharmacy. In 1871 he graduated from the State Normal School at Warrensburg, Mo., and engaged in the drug business in 1876. He later took a course in medicine at the University of Michigan and was graduated in 1881. In 1884 he moved to Monroe, Michigan, where he practiced his profession, in which he soon took a prominent place, and was elected Mayor of the city on four different occasions. In 1888 he established The Numismatist as a preliminary step to the formation of the American Numismatic Association, which was formed in 1892. He died suddenly on July 16, 1908, and was buried in the family lot in Woodland Cemetery, Monroe,
